DINNER

I will give you some recommendations when you are here for lunch or dinner if you want to taste traditional food.

For the first day you can go around Plaza Mayor, the street where both houses are, and the street Santa Isabel closed to the Plaza, there are plenty of bars there where you can have some tapas, or similar.

There is a vegetarian restaurant, called Almuzara not far from the Main Square (Calle Marqués del Arco 3).

In the street where you are you can also find pharmacies, and other kind of shops.
