Hughes Hall Residential Accommodation
University of Cambridge

An authentic University of Cambridge college experience.

Hughes Hall is one of the most delightful colleges in Cambridge, reflecting many of the characteristics that one would expect of this university city.

Hughes Hall offers classic university accommodation but in state-of-the-art surroundings. Each room is for single occupancy, with their own en-suite bathroom. Breakfast and evening meals are served in the college's modern grand dining hall with beautiful views across Fenner's, the historic Cambridge University cricket ground.

Getting to school: Hughes Hall is a 10- to 15-minute walk to the school. Cambridge is a small city and easy to get around on foot. Cycling is a great way to enjoy Cambridge and its surrounding countryside. Bicycles are on hire from the school from £45 for one week.

The Hughes Hall Porters' Lodge is open from 7am - midnight. The Porters are very important to the smooth running of the college and will help you with any questions.

Residential College accommodation available from: Sunday 6 July – Saturday 6 September 2025.
